We extend our warmest monsoon greetings to you.

The State Organization of Gynaecologists & Obstetricians of Gujarat (SOGOG) proudly presents an innovative Hybrid Conference dedicated to fostering a culture of clinical research and scientific inquiry among postgraduate students and practicing gynaecologists.

This unique academic platform is designed to encourage participants to transform clinical observations into meaningful research, share evidence-based experiences, and develop confidence in scientific presentation. Through papers, posters, videos, and patient education reels, delegates will have the opportunity to showcase their work before esteemed experts and peers.

The conference aims to:

- Promote research awareness in everyday clinical practice.
- Strengthen critical thinking and evidence-based decision-making.
- Encourage clinicians to engage in academic activities.
- Provide a supportive environment for first-time presenters.
- Enhance skills in scientific communication and patient education.
- Recognize and reward innovative ideas and quality research.

With dedicated themes, the event offers a valuable opportunity to learn, collaborate, and grow academically.

Join us in shaping the next generation of clinician-researchers and advancing women's healthcare through research, innovation, and knowledge sharing.
